

The First Impression...

In a blink of the eye, your calves are evaluated by cattle buyers, farmer-feeders, big feedlots and backgrounders. Lindskov-Thiel bulls can help that first look make a positive impression. And that's just the beginning. Feeders will remember your quiet, good-doing livestock that go on to perform well at each stage of the industry. Consider the Lindskov-Thiel look, weight and quality advantages to move your cattle down the road.
